True Religion x Megan Thee Stallion | Spring 2026 Campaign

True Religion Brand Jeans partnered with Megan Thee Stallion as headline talent for their Spring 2026 "True Self" campaign — a cinematic, studio-based editorial spanning three creative chapters: True Self, True Purpose, and True Legacy. The campaign included a photography and video shoot, required social posts across Instagram and TikTok, two dressing events, and media interviews.

MY ROLE:

- Serve`d as the primary point of contact for all post-production approvals, managing the asset review and feedback pipeline between Megan Thee Stallion's creative team and True Religion's digital and social leads
- Facilitated talent payment coordination, ensuring Megan Thee Stallion's team received disbursements per contract milestones
- Facilitated the approval of all digital and social assets associated with the campaign, ensuring content met both brand standards and contractual requirements before going live
- Led recurring syncs with True Religion's digital and social media teams to track asset delivery timelines and campaign launch deadlines
- Liaised between MTS's creative and True Religion's digital lead to secure timely feedback, keeping approval cycles on schedule
- Coordinated True Religion's donation of 200 pieces of branded apparel to Megan Thee Stallion's Pete and Thomas Foundation as part of the partnership's charitable commitment

Ayra Starr x Yale African Innovations Symposium

Afrobeats artist Ayra Starr was invited to speak at the Yale African Innovations Symposium, joining a gathering of innovators, creatives, and thought leaders at one of the world's leading academic institutions. The appearance marked a meaningful intersection of African artistry and intellectual discourse on the global stage.

MY ROLE:

- Identified and brought the Yale African Innovations Symposium opportunity to Ayra Starr and her team, facilitating the partnership from initial outreach through execution
- Served as the primary liaison between the Yale organizing team and Ayra Starr's team, managing all logistics including hotel accommodations and ground transportation
- Developed a comprehensive run of show (ROS) for the day, ensuring all scheduling, key contacts, and programming details were clearly mapped out ahead of the appearance
- Created a social media content list to guide content capture throughout the day, aligning on key moments and deliverables ahead of the event
- Collaborated with the digital team on-site to oversee content capture, ensuring all planned moments were documented

- Worked with the team in post to produce a recap video highlighting Ayra Starr's appearance and the broader symposium experience
